A gift of the Spirit is given to each Christian for the good of all. 1 Corinthians 12:7

Color the drawing to make it look like you.

On each line, write what that part of the body is.

Under each line, write something that part of the body can do.

Your body has many parts. The parts work together. In the same way, Christians work together to do God's will.

