

Ezra opened the Law. The people worshiped God.

The people wept when Ezra read the Law.

The leaders calmed the people down.

The people went and celebrated.